

The Ranginui package is designed to meet the needs of individuals, teams and organisations who want to indigenise their respective spaces. Oranga whakapapa involves first learning how to form a relationship with our ancestral knowledge in a fun and supportive environment. Weaving together Māori creation stories and contextualising them in our contemporary environment is the focus of this wānanga. Returning to 'Te Ōrokohanga' (Māori Creation) to understand the barriers to growth. Attendees embrace the values and principles unique to Mahi a Atua.

Cost: $500.00 per person. For businesses this price excludes gst. For individuals and businesses this price excludes travel and accomodation but includes lunch during training. Cost is negotiable for Māori organisations with up to 20 people registering.

Delivery format: One day wānanga
